DULL WATERFRONT DURING THE WEEK

Aside from the arrival and departure of two army transports and the return of the Iroquois, the waterfront has been excessively dull during the past week. There was a false alarm Thursday that the bark Kaulani was sighted but the vessel turned out to be simply one of the little coasters. The transport Thomas arrived from Manila last Sunday, leaving the next day for the Coast, having on board a full passenger list and several prominent people, among them being General Wade the former head of the army in the Philippines, and Dr. McGee who has been with the Japanese Red Cross. On Wednesday morning the transport Sherman arrived from San Francisco with 85 passengers for this port and a large number of through passengers. She sailed the next day at noon for Manila via Guam. At noon Wednesday the Alameda sailed for the Coast with a small passenger list and about 900 tons of freight. The Iroquois also returned that day from a trip to the windward islands where she looked into lighthouse and buoy questions and cleaned up Capt. Cook's monument.
The Andrew Welch got away for San Francisco at 1:10 yesterday with several passengers and 1000 tons of sugar. There was the usual amount of activity among the island boats. Most of them are being overhauled for the winter and sugar season.

During the week the W. G. Hall, Iwaland and Mauna Loa have been on the marine railway.

After the next trip the Mauna Loa will be laid up for a general overhauling and to have a new boiler put in. The W. G. Hall will take her run during that time.

The vessels in port (excluding obsolete vessels in Naval row and small island coasters)
are:

The Norwegian steamer Inger which is at Railroad wharf No. 2 where she has been discharging guano; the Erskine M. Phelps which is wintering on the Waikiki side of the Hackfeldt wharf; the Mauna Loa is at her usual place at the Inter-Island wharf; the J. A. Cummins is at the Oceanic wharf taking on freight.

The steamers Kaulani and Kinau are at the Wilder wharf unloading and taking on freight.

The Likiep is at the Bishop slip being thoroughly overhauled. The schooner James Rolph is also at the Bishop slip. She is unloading her cargo of lumber.

Kinau Arrives.

The Kinau arrived about 11 a. m. yesterday with a large crowd of passengers. Many of the plantation managers came down on her to attend the annual meeting of the Planters' Association which comes off Wednesday.

The weather was so Wednesday along the Hawaii coast that the Kinau found it impossible to land at Laupahoehoe. Her freight list was rather small, consisting of 31 kegs, 48 pieces koa, two horses, one cow, one calf and 106 packages sundries.

MUSICAL SMOKER AT HAALELEA LAWN

The Honolulu Symphony orchestra gave a smoker last evening at their Haaalelea Lawn Club house. It was a very pleasant evening's entertainment and there were about fifty there to enjoy it. Twelve numbers on the program were carried out. At the end Judge Weaver urged as many as could to hand their names in as candidates for the maennerchor department of the club. The vocal part has been neglected and it is desired to form a good chorus.

All the selections were very well rendered, Johnson's mind-reading seance bringing possibly, the most applause. The first selection was an overture "Nebuchadnezzar" by Verdi which was rendered by the whole orchestra. The second was a song by I. S. Dillingham entitled "My Uncle Sam" by Julian Edwards. Harry Macfarlane was his accompanist. Third on the program was a violin solo by W. Love, while next came the song "For All Eternity" rendered by Harry Jeffries. The fifth was a flute duet by Mr. C. S. Desky and E. Kopke Jr., accompanied by the orchestra. The song "Out on the Deep" by F. Lohr was then rendered by Mr. I. S. Dillingham. The seventh selection rendered by the orchestra, being "Fleur d'Autin" by A. Corbin. The next selection also by the orchestra, was "La Fzigané," an Hungarian phantasy by A. Corbin. Mr. Jeffries then rendered Paolo Fosti's song "Good-bye."

Mr. George Davies sang "The Motor Car" with words modified to suit local conditions.

Mr. Johnson created a great deal of amusement by demonstrating his truly remarkable powers of mind-reading. It must have been, as he said, a great strain on the mind. To still further illustrate his powers, Johnson showed how easy it is to turn beer into a man. The evening's entertainment was concluded by the orchestra's rendering "Ecole d'Alpout" by Ludet. It would be a great boon to the city could an entertainment such as this be given say once a month. The orchestra was made up as follows:

Leader.
A. Marques.

1st Violins—W. Love, C. Bush, G. Isenberg, A. L. Barton.
2nd Violins—F. Melchers, E. Langer, E. Kaai, W. Noel, E. C. Freitas.

Violas—Dr. C. Ramus, H. Tuck. Cello—W. Beakbane.

Double Basses—A. Cantin, Baker. Flutes—S. Desky, E. Kopke Jr.

Oboe—Dr. F. F. Frear. English Horn—F. M. Bechtel.

Cornets—G. Boisse, G. F. Davies. Trombone—H. F. Wichman.

Trumpet—F. Gruner. Piano—A. Falke.

Today's Concert at Makee Island

The first Sunday afternoon band concert for several weeks will be given at Makee Island, Waikiki, today, beginning at 3 o'clock, when the following program will be played:

PART I.
"The Old Hundred."
"Japanese War March" (new).....Luders
Overture—"Tell".....Rossini
Selection—"Faust".....Gounod
Vocal—"Cavalleria Rusticana".....Mabel McKinley

PART II.
Vocal—"The Holy City".....Adams
Mr. I. S. Ellis.
Selection—"Old Folks at Home".....Dalbey
Irish Intermezzo—"A Bit O'Blarney".....Helf
Iapo Rhapsody—"Karama".....Mabel McKinley
"The Star Spangled Banner."

Late in the afternoon eighteen wharf rats were caught playing craps on the Hackfeldt wharf. Two policemen rowed over to the end of the dock unseen by the boys while two more walked out on the pier in the regular way. The capture was easy. Four Chinese were arrested about this time and fairly late in the evening seven Japs were caught gambling over the Chinese theatre. Three drunks were arrested during the evening, two Japs and a Portuguese. The two other arrests were Japs for common nuisance.

Handsome Souvenir Calendar.
An artistic calendar for 1905, making a beautiful Hawaiian souvenir, has been prepared by Miss E. D. King. It is in two subjects, one having a luau and the other a hula dance scene, hand-painted in water colors upon real tapa. The latter mentioned picture includes a view of Diamond Head in the background. A royal yellow bow fastens the calendar at the top. Miss King will have the calendar on view at the Hawaiian News Co.'s store, the curio stores and at her studio.
